

I do not want the weakening of Indiana's law on privacy by allowing businesses to be able to call me when they want. As in the past, all this will do is allow them to solicit us with unwanted phone calls. If they want to provide me with information on their updates, they can do so in the mail or in the newspaper.